Contemporary Artist

Larry “Poncho” Brown is a native of Baltimore, Maryland. He received his Bachelors of Fine Arts degree from the Maryland Institute College of Art.

His unique art, both fine and commercial, has been published nationally in Upscale, Ebony, Ebony Man, Essence, and Jet magazines.

He is the youngest honorary member of Art 2000, a national multi-cultural visual arts association. Among his convictions is the educating of young artists. He is the founder of “The African American Youth Art Exhibition” which has been sponsored in Baltimore annually since 1990. He is also one of the founders of Artistic Legacy, which sponsors art workshops with students featuring artists nationwide.

“My goal is to provide an outlet for young artists to express themselves, as well as enlighten them on the importance of art in our culture.”

Admirers often cite rhythm, movement and unity as favorite elements in his work. Brown primarily works in acrylic, although he uses a variety of mediums and styles to express his interests in Afrocentric themes, ancient Egyptology, and dance. Poncho’s unique style combines past and present art stylizations to create a sense of realism, mysticism and beauty, which gives his art universal appeal.

The Library art exhibit features reproductions of twelve of Brown’s works:

1. Family Affair
2. Simplistic Beauty II

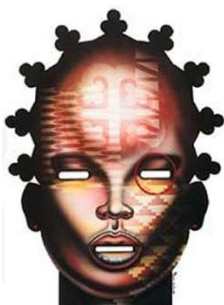

3. Ascension

4. Innocence
5. Vessel of Mercy
6. Kindred Spirits

7. In His Power
8. Always Be My Baby
9. Each One, Teach One
10. Millenium Mask 5

11. The Sanctuary
12. Gifts of Praise
